Chapter III

The Trial Courts in Felony Cases, by E. W. Hinton

(1) Laws Governing Criminal Procedure and Court Organization

1. Preliminary Examination .................................. 195
2. Indictment .................................................. 195
3. Arraignment and Pleas ..................................... 197
4. Changes of Venue ........................................... 197
5. Continuance .................................................. 198
6. Selection of the Jury ....................................... 198
7. Function of the Judge ...................................... 199
8. Function of the Jury ....................................... 200
9. Motion for New Trial ....................................... 200
10. Motion in Arrest of Judgment ............................. 200
11. Bill of Exception ........................................... 200
12. Appellate Review .......................................... 200
13. Insanity Inquest ........................................... 201
14. Courts and Jurisdiction ................................... 201

(II) Work of the Trial Courts

15. Scope of Survey ............................................ 202
16. Elimination of Cases at Preliminary Stage ............ 204
17. Elimination at the Grand Jury Stage .................... 205
18. Elimination of Cases in the Trial Court ............... 206
19. Nolle Prosequi and Dismissals ........................... 208
20. Stricken from the Docket .................................. 208
21. Discharges by the Court ................................... 211
22. Pending Cases .............................................. 211
23. Acquittals, by Court and by Jury ......................... 211
24. Found Insane ............................................... 213
25. Convictions, by Court and by Jury ....................... 213
26. Continuances ............................................... 216
27. Bail Bonds (Cook County) ................................ 216
28. Same, Comparison with the City of St. Louis ......... 217
29. Same, Numerical Importance of Bail Forfeitures .... 217
30. Habeas Corpus .............................................. 218
31. Conclusions ................................................ 218
32. Recommendations .......................................... 219

Chapter IV

The Juries, in Felony Cases, in Cook County, by Gustave F. Fischer

1. Foreword ..................................................... 225
2. Relative Importance of Jury Trials ...................... 226
3. Constitutional and Statutory Provisions ................. 227
4. Administration in Cook County ............................ 228
5. Method of Determining Qualifications of Electors .... 229
6. The Jury Box ............................................... 230
7. Drawing Petit Jurors ....................................... 230
8. Selection of Grand Jurors ................................ 231
9. Personnel of Juries ................................................. 231
10. Jury Service Statistics ........................................... 231
11. Excessive Drafts and Excuses .................................... 233
12. Length of Jury Service .......................................... 233
13. Intimidation of Jurors ........................................... 234
14. Public Sentiment as to Jury Service ............................. 236
15. Summary of Findings .............................................. 239
16. Recommendations ................................................ 242

CHAPTER V

THE PROSECUTOR (OUTSIDE OF CHICAGO) IN FELONY CASES, by William D. Knight

1. The State’s Attorney and His Client, the People ................... 249
2. The Importance of the State’s Attorney as a Public Officer ........ 250
3. Personnel and Compensation ...................................... 251
4. Felony Cases Handled .............................................. 254
5. The Preliminary Hearing ........................................... 258
6. Plea of Guilty ...................................................... 260
7. The Grand Jury .................................................... 263
8. The Trial ........................................................... 263
9. Disposition in the Trial Court .................................... 265
10. Preparation of Cases .............................................. 267
11. The Problem of Witnesses ........................................ 268
12. Nolle Prosequi ..................................................... 269
13. Relative Responsibility of State’s Attorney, Judge, and Jury .... 270
14. The Coroner’s Inquest ............................................ 272
15. Office Records ..................................................... 273
16. Bail Bonds ......................................................... 274
17. Probation .......................................................... 274
18. Delays and Continuances ......................................... 275
19. General Comment .................................................. 277
20. Findings ........................................................... 278
21. Recommendations ................................................ 278

CHAPTER VI

THE PROSECUTOR (IN CHICAGO) IN FELONY CASES, by John J. Healy

1. Factors in the Administration of Criminal Justice .................. 285
2. Power and Duty of the State’s Attorney ........................... 288
3. State’s Attorney’s Staff ............................................ 288
4. Police Department .................................................. 289
5. Felonies Prosecuted in Chicago in 1926 ............................ 292
6. Ten Thousand Fruitless Prosecutions ................................ 294
7. Elimination in the Preliminary Hearing .............................. 296
8. Elimination in the Grand Jury ..................................... 298
9. Elimination after Indictment and Prior to Sentence ............... 300
10. Never Apprehended ................................................ 300
11. Bond Forfeited, Not Apprehended .................................. 301
12. Certified to Other Courts ........................................ 301
13. Nolle Prosequi .................................................. 301
14. Stricken, with Leave to Reindict ....................... 302
15. Same: Account Other Indictments .................... 303
16. Dismissed for Want of Prosecution .......... 303
17. Off Call ..................................................... 304
18. Felony Waived ................................................ 304
19. Acquitted by Jury ........................................... 305
20. Only a Preliminary Hearing ....................... 305
21. Bond Forfeitures .......................................... 308
22. What Does It Mean in Chicago to Be "Guilty"? .... 310
23. Total Convictions, Classified as to Lesser Offenses 312
24. Pleas and Probations .................................... 314
25. The Plea, the Prosecutor, and the Jury, Compared as to Responsibility ................ 315
26. Specific Examples of Unsatisfactory Prosecutions in 1926 317
27. Same: Pleas to a Lesser Offense ..................... 318
28. Same: Intimidation of Witnesses ....................... 320
29. Same: Restitution to Prosecuting Witness .......... 322
30. Same: Dismissed for Want of Prosecution .......... 323
31. Same: Probation Improperly Granted .............. 325
32. Summary of Findings ..................................... 326
33. Recommendations ......................................... 331

CHAPTER VII

RURAL POLICE PROTECTION, by Bruce Smith

1. In General ..................................................... 337
2. The Sheriff and His Aides ................................ 338
3. Township Constables ....................................... 340
4. Recent Rural Police Developments .................... 340
5. County Police ............................................... 341
6. Private Protective Associations ...................... 342
7. State Highway Police ..................................... 343
8. Same: Management of Personnel ....................... 343
9. Same: Disciplinary Action ................................ 344
10. Same: Training .............................................. 346
11. Same: Uniformed Patrol .................................... 347
12. Riots and Riot Duty ...................................... 348
13. A Constructive Program .................................. 351

CHAPTER VIII

THE POLICE (IN CHICAGO), by August Vollmer

1. Foreword .................................................... 357
2. Political Factors .......................................... 358
3. Police Personnel ........................................... 360
4. Civil Service Examinations ............................ 361
5. Police Training ............................................ 363
6. Divisional Organization ................................. 365
CHAPTER IX

THE CORONER (IN COOK COUNTY), by Ludwig Hektoen

1. History ........................................ 377
2. Qualifications of Present Staff .................. 378
3. Handling of Autopsies ............................ 378
4. Management of the Chemical Laboratory ........ 383
5. Reports of Cause of Death ....................... 383
6. Summary ........................................ 386
7. Recommendations ............................... 388

CHAPTER X

THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF CHICAGO, by Raymond Moley

1. Introduction ................................... 393
2. History, Organization, and Criminal Jurisdiction 394
3. The Chief Justice and His Powers .............. 396
4. Felony Dispositions ............................ 398
5. Same: Dismissals and Discharges ............... 398
6. Judicial Personnel ................................ 400
7. Same: Ages .................................... 401
8. Same: Education and Experience ............... 402
9. Same: Rating by Bar ................................ 403
10. Housing and Decorum of the Branch Courts .... 404
11. Prosecution in the Municipal Court ........... 406
12. The Gentlemen for the Defense ................ 408
13. Bail Bond Branch Court ........................ 410
14. Routine of the Clerk's Office ........................ 413
15. Conclusions and Recommendations ................... 415
16. Partisan Politics, the Ultimate Problem .......... 417

CHAPTER XI

THE PROBATION AND PAROLE SYSTEM, by Andrew A. Bruce, E. W. Burgess and Albert J. Harno

PART A. HISTORY OF THE SYSTEM IN ILLINOIS

1. The Function of the Board of Paroles ............... 427
2. Pardons, Paroles and Probation, Distinguished .... 428
3. Prerogatives of the Governor ..................... 428
4. The Various Theories of Criminal Punishment .......... 430
5. Same: Modern Tendencies of Theory .............................................. 431
   (a) The So-Called Classical School of Penology .......................... 432
   (b) The Neo-Classical School .............................................. 432
   (c) The Positive School of Penology ................................... 433
   (d) The School of Modern Penology ...................................... 433
6. The Policy of Punishment in Early Illinois ................................. 434
7. The Reaction Against Excessive Severity; The First State Penitentiary; And the More Humane Criminal Code of 1833 ..... 435
8. The Era of Reform, after 1847 .............................................. 436
9. The First State Reform School, and the Beginning of Paroles .......... 437
10. A System of Parole for Juvenile Offenders ............................... 437
11. The Abolition of the Use of the Lash, and the Substitution of Solitary Confinement ...................................................... 437
12. The Abuse of the Punishment of Solitary Confinement ................. 438
13. The Good Time Allowance .................................................. 439
15. The Indeterminate Sentence ................................................ 440
16. First State Board of Pardons and Paroles ............................... 442
17. The Creation of the Department of Public Welfare in 1917; and of the New Parole Board in 1927 .............................. 443
   (a) The Legislation Prior to 1917 ...................................... 443
   (b) The Creation of the Department of Public Welfare in 1917 ...... 443
   (c) The Act of 1927 and the New Board of Paroles .................... 443
18. The Cost of Parole .......................................................... 444
19. The Abolition of the Use of the Lash, and the Substitution of Solitary Confinement ...................................................... 437
20. Justification for the Indeterminate Sentence and the Parole ......... 446
21. Same: Necessity of Adequate Supervision ................................ 446
22. Same: Failure of the Flat Sentence Policy .............................. 446
24. Length of Indeterminate Sentences ...................................... 448
25. Defects in the Fixed Sentence Plan ..................................... 448
26. The Indeterminate Sentence and Parole Favored by the Committee if Adequately Provided for and Properly Administered ................. 450
27. Problem of Parole Not Yet Solved in Illinois ......................... 450
29. Same: Political Officers Generally .................................... 452
30. Same: Danger of Partisan Political Appointments .................... 452
31. Same: Partisan Politics and Our Penitentiaries ....................... 453
32. Same: The Prison Guard ................................................... 454
33. Same: Idleness as a Preparation for Freedom ........................... 455

PART B. EXPERIENCE WITH PAROLES, 1917 TO 1927

33. The Supervisor’s Office, 1917-1927 ...................................... 456
34. Condition of the Records .................................................. 457
35. Powers of the Supervisor .................................................. 457
36. The Prison Population ..................................................... 458
37. The Parole Board Created in 1927 ...................................... 459
38. Procedure of the Parole Board .......................................... 460
39. Regulations Adopted for the Board’s Action ........................... 461
40. Official Statements of Trial Judges and State’s Attorneys: Their Value ................................................................. 463
41. Same: Replies of the Judges .............................................. 465
42. Same: Replies of the State’s Attorneys ................................ 466
43. Estimate of the Work of the Board ..................................... 467
44. Recommendations to the Board .......................................... 468
45. Lesser Pleas and Pleas of Guilty: Their Relation to Parole ......... 470
46. Same: Extent of this Practice ........................................... 473
47. Same: The Problem for the Parole Board ............................... 473
48. Same: Action of the State’s Attorney in Securing Pleas of Guilty ........................................................................... 475

PART C. PRISON AND PAROLE METHODS, AS EFFECTIVE FOR REHABILITATION OF THE CONVICT

49. Statute Provision .................................................................. 478
50. The Illinois State Reformatory at Pontiac ................................. 478
51. Same: Occupational and Training Opportunities ....................... 478
52. Same: Non-productive Occupations ....................................... 480
53. Same: Summary of Occupational Opportunities ....................... 482
54. Same: Academic School ........................................................ 483
55. Same: The Library ................................................................ 484
56. Same: Recreation .................................................................. 485
57. Same: Administration and Discipline ...................................... 486
58. Same: Conclusion .................................................................. 489
59. Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet ......................................... 490
60. Same: Occupational Opportunities ........................................ 491
61. Same: The School and the Library ......................................... 494
62. Same: Chaplain .................................................................... 495
63. Same: Recreation .................................................................. 495
64. Same: Administration and Discipline ...................................... 496
65. Same: Recommendations to the Board ................................. 500
66. The Southern Illinois Penitentiary at Menard ......................... 500
67. Same: Occupational Opportunities ........................................ 500
68. Same: The School and the Library ......................................... 502
69. Administration .................................................................... 503
70. Same: Discipline .................................................................. 504
71. Conclusion .......................................................................... 506
72. Purpose of Parole Supervision .............................................. 507
73. Prison Records for Parole Supervision ................................. 507
74. Employment on Parole .......................................................... 509
75. Supervision on Parole ............................................................ 510
76. Same: Parole Supervision of Delinquent Children from the State Training School for Girls at Geneva ......................... 511
77. Same: Parole and Supervision of Commitments to St. Charles 513
78. Same: Reorganization of Parole Supervision ......................... 513
79. Length of the Parole Period ................................................... 514

PART D. FACTORS DETERMINING SUCCESS OR FAILURE ON PAROLE

80. Different Types of Paroled Men ............................................ 516
81. Same: First Offenders and Other Types ................................. 516
82. What Proportion of Paroled Men Make Good? ......................... 518
83. What Does “Making Good” Mean? ....................................... 520
84. Major and Minor Violations of Parole ................................. 521
85. Factors Making for Success or Failure on Parole ................... 521
86. Same: Offense Named in the Indictment ................................. 522
87. Same: Number of Associates in Crime Resulting in Conviction 523
88. Same: National or Racial Origin ......................................... 523
89. Same: Parental Status and Marital State ............................... 523
90. Same: Type of Offender ....................................................... 524
91. Same: The Criminal as a Social Type ................................. 525
92. Same: Place or Residence ..................................................... 525

xvi
93. Same: Factors Involved in the Trial and the Sentence
94. Same: Previous Criminal Record and Parole Violation
95. Same: Previous Work Record
96. Same: Behavior Record in Prison
97. Same: Age When Paroled
98. Same: Intelligence and Personality as Factors
99. Same: Records as a Basis of Prediction
100. Influence Versus Merit in Parole Administration
101. Same: Influence as Revealed by Records
102. Same: Influence Against the Prisoner
103. The Courts and Parole in the Eyes of the Discharged Prisoner
104. Testing Parole Administration
105. Same: Time Served, Classified by Types of Offenders
106. Can Scientific Methods Be Applied to Parole Administration

PART E. THE PROBATION SYSTEM

107. Purpose and Scope of Probation, Contrasted with Parole
108. Trial Court's Discretion
109. Judges' Views on the Probation System
110. State's Attorneys' Views on the Probation System
111. Extent of Use Made of Probation
112. Conditions Required for Admission to Probation: Preliminary Inquiry
113. Same: Pleas of Guilty to Lesser Offense
114. Probation Supervision: The Personnel
115. Same: Comments of Judges
116. Violation of Conditions of Probation
117. Probation Results: In General
118. Same: Men
119. Same: Women
120. Same: Comments of Judges and State's Attorneys
121. Summary and Findings
122. Recommendations
123. Conclusion

CHAPTER XII

CRIME RECORD SYSTEMS, by W. C. Jamison

1. General Lack of Record Systems
2. Records of Complaints of Offenses
3. Records of Criminal Proceedings
4. Lack of Uniformity and Centralized System: (1) Outside of Cook County
5. Same: (2) Cook County
6. Requirements of an Adequate System
7. Identification Records
8. Recommendations

xvii
PART II—SPECIFIC TYPES OF OFFENSES
AND OFFENDERS

CHAPTER XIII

HOMICIDE (IN COOK COUNTY), by Arthur V. Lashly

1. Introduction .......................................................... 593
2. Agencies Dealing with Homicide ................................ 595
   (a) Police ............................................................. 595
   (b) Coroner .......................................................... 596
   (c) State's Attorney .............................................. 998
3. Sources of Data of Homicide ...................................... 599
4. What is Homicide? .................................................. 600
5. Homicides 1926, 1927, Classified by Grades of Criminality 600
6. Homicides Classified by Modes of Killing ..................... 602
7. Murder by Automobile ............................................ 602
8. Infanticide ....................................................... 604
9. Abortion ............................................................. 604
10. Undetermined Violence ........................................... 604
11. Justifiable Homicide ............................................. 606
12. Killed by Police .................................................. 606
13. Homicides Classified as to Color and Sex of Victims ...... 606
14. Colored Victims ................................................ 606
15. Modes of Killing, as Related to Color and Sex .............. 608
16. Motives ............................................................. 608
17. Gang Murders ..................................................... 610
18. Other Motives .................................................... 611
   (a) Murders by Abortion .................................... 611
   (b) Murderers Killed on Spot ................................ 612
   (c) Murderers Suicides ....................................... 612
   (d) Domestic Quarrels ........................................ 612
   (e) Altercations and Brawls .................................. 612
19. Murder Distribution by Months ................................ 612
20. Murders Classified by Localities .............................. 615
21. Police Administration in Murder Cases ....................... 619
22. Same: Unsolved Murders, Classified ......................... 619
23. Same: Color and Sex .......................................... 621
24. Same: Gun Murders ............................................. 621
25. Same: Unsolved and Unconvicted Murders, Compared to Total Murders ........................................ 621
26. Murders Classified as to Kinds of Known Perpetrators ...... 622
27. Judicial Disposition of Homicides Charged by Police .... 625
28. Same: Unknown to Coroner but Later Charged by Police .. 626
29. Same: Judicial Disposition, in Detail ....................... 626
30. Same: Found Guilty ............................................ 628
31. Same: Arrested but No Charge Filed ......................... 628
32. Same: Disposed of Without Punishment ...................... 628
33. Same: Sentences Pronounced on Guilty ...................... 629
34. Same: Disposition of Gang Murder Cases .................... 629
35. Same: Disposition of Murder Cases, Summarized .......... 630
36. Same: Disposition in Homicide Cases Other Than Murder 632
37. Summary of Findings .......................................... 634
38. Recommendations .............................................. 639
CHAPTER XIV

THE JUVENILE DELINQUENT, by Clifford R. Shaw and Earl D. Myers

PART A—Quantity of Delinquency in Cook County

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Numerical Quantity, in General</td>
<td>645</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Number of Cases</td>
<td>646</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Number of Cases Brought into Court</td>
<td>647</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Number of Cases Committed to Institutions</td>
<td>648</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Foregoing Totals Compared</td>
<td>649</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Geographic Location of Delinquencies</td>
<td>650</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Residence of Delinquent Boys</td>
<td>651</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Residence of Delinquent Girls</td>
<td>651</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. Distribution of Delinquencies by Police Districts</td>
<td>659</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PART B—Personality of Delinquent Offenders

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10. Delinquency and the Community</td>
<td>662</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11. Delinquency as Group Behavior</td>
<td>662</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12. Diffusion of Delinquent Patterns of Conduct</td>
<td>663</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13. The Delinquent and His Social World</td>
<td>663</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14. Age Distribution of Delinquents</td>
<td>664</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15. Types of Offenses</td>
<td>665</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16. Number of Appearances in Court</td>
<td>666</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17. Racial Origin of Delinquents</td>
<td>666</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18. Religious Affiliations of Delinquents</td>
<td>668</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>19. Extent of Juvenile Delinquency Outside of Cook County</td>
<td>670</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PART C—Treatment of Delinquents

(1) IN COOK COUNTY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>20. The Juvenile Court</td>
<td>677</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21. Same: Organization of the Court</td>
<td>678</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22. Same: Procedure of Complaint and Arrest</td>
<td>678</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>23. Same: Juvenile Detention Home</td>
<td>680</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>24. Same: Hearing in Court</td>
<td>681</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25. Same: Probation</td>
<td>682</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) The Staff</td>
<td>682</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) Visits</td>
<td>682</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(c) Duty-Load</td>
<td>684</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(d) Repeaters</td>
<td>685</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(e) Sex</td>
<td>688</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(f) Place of Committal</td>
<td>689</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(g) Supervision</td>
<td>691</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>26. Chicago and Cook County School for Boys</td>
<td>691</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) Purpose</td>
<td>691</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) Time of Detention</td>
<td>692</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(c) Parole</td>
<td>692</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(d) Escapes</td>
<td>693</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(e) Management</td>
<td>695</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(f) Treatment of Boys</td>
<td>696</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(g) Release and After-Care</td>
<td>698</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>27. Private Institutional Care for Delinquent Girls</td>
<td>698</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>28. Same: The House of the Good Shepherd</td>
<td>699</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>